Revised terms and conditions for Ph.D.(Part Time)/2020-21

In the digital and internet era, the radial distance criteria of 100 km for part-time PhD candidates have been removed with following conditions.

- a) The part-time PhD candidate can earn credit for course work from IITs, NITs, IIITs, or any other reputed institutes as approved by Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor. The subject must be recommended by the supervisor through Head of Department.
- b) Part-time PhD candidate can also earn credit for course work through Govt. recognized online courses (like SWAYAM or courses offered by NPTEL). Candidate can opt maximum two such courses and marks earned in the course will be converted to equivalent grade as per university norms. The credit point for the course will be considered as per the existing guideline of the university i.e. four-week course will earn 1 credit similarly 16-week course will earn 4 credits.
- c) The minimum residential requirement for the first year of the part-time PhD candidate will be 30 days in the respective academic year. From the second year onwards the minimum residential requirement will be 15 days. However, based on the performance, a candidate may be asked by the DRC to visit 30 days in each academic year. The whole residential duration can be divided into several visits. The supervisor has to ensure that the minimum stay period per visit of the student on the campus should be at least one week.
