SUBJECT-DROP NOTICE

B.Tech. final year (7th Semester) students of Academic Session 2020-21 are hereby informed that they can drop a subject of their choice as provided in the Ordinance, provided:

1. They expect to clear total credits 180/130 {180 for students entering in 1st semester and 130 for students entering in 3rd semester} without considering that subject. Similarly, for Audit subjects, they expect to clear total credits 20/14 {20 for students entering in 1st semester and 14 for students entering in 3rd semester} without considering that subject.
2. The subject which student is willing to drop must be a part of Undergraduate Programme Elective (PE), Open Elective (OE) and Humanities & Social Science Elective (HSSE) or Audit courses.
3. If the subject, student is willing to drop is a MOOC subject registered on NPTEL etc, then he can drop that subject only if he has another MOOC subject registered on NPTEL. It means that if the student has registered a single MOOC subject then he cannot drop that subject.
4. The student is not failed, detained or involved in UFM in that subject.

Students should, therefore, very carefully, choose the subject which he wants to drop and apply for subject drop through University website on 12.10.2020. The timeline shall be as follows:
