Important Notice Regarding Convocation – 2019

The "Fourth Convocation" of the University is going to be held on 22.08.2019 in which it is desired that students, who have registered themselves by 12.08.2019 to take part in the Convocation, shall receive their Degrees, Certificates and Medals personally. However, for all those students who, due to some unavoidable reasons, cannot be present in person, the following has been decided:-

- (a) Parents/ Guardians may receive degrees on behalf of the students provided they are carrying an authorization letter signed by the student concerned. The degrees shall be handed over to the Parents/ Guardians as per University Rules after successful verification of their credentials.
- (b) Degrees can also be sent to the students by post on their Indian addresses only if they request in writing. However, in that case University shall not be responsible for any delay, loss or damage.
