Imp Notice for Direct PhD program

If a candidate finds it difficult to apply online for the PhD program through the direct mode (Directly after B. Tech to PhD program), please follow the steps below:

➤ Register for the M. Tech program in the respective department.

➤ After successful registration, send an email to the admission committee [admission2024@mmmut.ac.in and phd.admission@mmmut.ac.in] with your registration acknowledgment.

➤ In your email, mention your preference for the direct PhD program.

By following these steps, your application can be considered for the direct PhD program.
